ELA June Assessment Study Guide – 7th Grade

Grammar

- Subjects, subject complements
- Direct objects, indirect objects, objects of prepositions
- Demonstrative, interrogative, indefinite adjectives
- Positive, comparative, and superlative forms of adjectives
- Pronouns – person and number
- Pronouns – antecedents
- Verbs – transitive and intransitives
- Verbs – active and passive voice
- Verb moods – indicative, imperative, subjunctive
- Subject-Verb agreement
- Verbals – participles, gerunds, infinitives
- Adverbs
- Sentences
- Prepositions
- Interjections
- Punctuation

Writing

- Using words that have precise meaning
- Personal Narratives – putting events in chronological order, using details to further describe/explain events, using dialogue
- Research – Direct quotes (What they are and how they are used), Recognizing terminology (Works Cited Page, sources, plagiarism, title and copyright pages, entry), Recognizing what type of source is used on a Works Cited Page